

2010 CGA Excavation Safety Conference & Expo

Oil & Gas Summit Sponsorship

This is at the 2010 CGA Excavation Safety Conference & Expo, which will be at the San Diego Convention Center in San Diego, California from March 2-4.

The Oil & Gas Summit is an open forum conducted by a panel of industry leaders from across North America. Panel members share results of successful programs being used to improve excavation safety and damage prevention. There is also an interactive exchange with the audience.

This Sponsorship Includes:

1. Recognition of your sponsorship on the conference Web Site.
2. Recognition of your sponsorship in the Conference Program Guide.
3. Recognition of your sponsor in pre-show marketing materials, promoting the summit.
4. All attendees from the sponsoring company will receive a "Sponsorship Ribbon" for their conference name badge.

The cost for this sponsorship is: $2,500.00
There will be one (1) Oil & Gas Sponsorship sold.
