

2010 CGA Excavation Safety Conference & Expo

Resource Center Sponsorship

This is at the 2010 CGA Excavation Safety Conference & Expo, which will be at the San Diego Convention Center in San Diego, California from March 2-4.

The Resource Center is where attendees can:

1. Get current publications from Industry Endorsing Magazines.
2. See copies of the Excavation Safety Guide, along with ways of customizing the guide for your personal distribution.
3. View apparel that is available for sale that has the conference logo on it.
4. View video items (tapes, CDs, DVDs) that are industry related and are for sale.
5. Get copies of publications and literature from industry endorsing organizations.

This Sponsorship Includes:

1. A banner in the Resource Center, acknowledging your sponsorship of the Resource Center.
2. Recognition of your sponsorship on the Conference Web Site.
3. Recognition of your sponsorship in the Conference Program Guide.

There will be a person full time in the Resource Center, to answer and assist attendees with their requests.

The cost for this sponsorship is: $1,000.00

There will be one (1) Resource Center Sponsorship sold.
